DIRK SALZ

Dirk Salz, a German artist born in 1962, seeks the unattainable ideal through his art. His work revolves around composition and provocation, constantly striving for the perfect balance, only to find it elusive. In this quest, he blurs the line between creator and observer, exploring human perception and the unattainable nature of cognition.

Starting his artistic journey in 2002, Salz's creative path began after studying engineering at RWTH Aachen, following his high school graduation. During the formative years from 1979 to 1981, he received private instruction in painting, drawing, and art history. Ever since, he has been continuously guided and educated by various artists.

Over the years, Salz has presented his art in numerous solo exhibitions, leaving a mark on the art scene. Notable solo shows include "THE WORLD IS DEEP..." at Galerie Roger Katwijk in Amsterdam (2022), "CRUNCH TIME" at Galerie Heitsch in Munich (2021), "BUT ALL JOY WANTS ETERNITY" at Galeria Victor Lope in Barcelona (2021), and "EVERY COLOUR YOU ARE" at Galerie Obrist in Essen (2021).

In 2020, his art was showcased in exhibitions like "Reflections" at Galerie Heitsch in Munich, "Slow Paintings" at Galerie Frey in Salzburg, and "The Painting Within" at Galerie Bromer in Zurich. His artistic prowess extended to group exhibitions, where his work shared space with other talented artists. Notable group shows include "Director's Cut: Insights on the growing of a collection" at Museum Pfalzgalerie Kaiserslautern (2021), "New Luxe" at Bluerider Art in Taipei (2021), and "4 Elemente" at Galerie Löhrl in Mönchengladbach (2021)
