FRAGMENTS OF THOUGHT

GALLERI BENONI

17.01-28.02.2025

Welcome to “Fragments of thought,” an art exhibition that celebrates the possibilities of abstract expression. This curated collection showcases an eclectic array of works across various mediums, including paintings, thought-provoking sculptures taking a deep dive into the biomechanics realm, and intricate pieces on paper.

As you walk through the exhibition, allow yourself to be immersed in an interplay of colors, forms, and textures. Each piece invites you to explore and challenge your perceptions and ignite your imagination. Each piece has its own visual dialogue. The works are curated to blend in with each other, instead of forced by a common denominator. To give you a hint of what to expect, you will witness a lithograph by the late Park Seo-Bo from 1988 (considered one of the defining voices of Dansaekhwa, an essential movement within Korean modernism), then fast forward to a brand new piece by Mark Ebert Løvendahl, our youngest artist in the gallery, seamlessly fusing aesthetic thought and craft.

The idea behind the show is to encourage you to interpret and connect with each work on a personal level. It is a celebration of creativity, innovation, and the beauty of the abstract medium.
